WELDING Journal

EXHIBITOR PRE-SHOW EXPOSURE IN AMERICA'S TOP WELDING MAGAZINE

The November Welding Journal is the 2017 FABTECH Preview for more than 72,000 members of the American Welding Society. This is the guide most decision makers in the welding industry use to plan their show buying activities. The Welding Journal provides complete exhibitor details, booth by booth and/or product by product, and much more.

Space for the AWS Welding Journal
FABTECH Preview November issue
closes Oct. 4, 2017

The Welding Journal is the official publication of the American Welding Society and is the place to promote the hottest products you will exhibit at the FABTECH Show in Chicago, IL. To take advantage of this special opportunity, call now for advertising bonuses and get the best space available.
