

Exhibitor pre-show ad bonus in America's top welding magazine

The October Welding Journal is the 2014 FABTECH Preview for more than 69,000 members of the American Welding Society. This is the guide most decision makers in the welding industry use to plan their show buying activities. The Welding Journal provides complete exhibitor details, booth by booth and product by product, and much more.

Space for the AWS Welding Journal Fabtech Preview October issue closes Sept. 3, but exhibitors who reserve early by Aug. 4 will also receive:

- ✓ $300 savings on a full-page ad
- ✓ $150 savings on a fractional ad
- ✓ Full-color company logo printed in the Show issue to help build your brand awareness

The Welding Journal is the official publication of the American Welding Society and is the place to promote the hottest products you will exhibit at the FABTECH show in Atlanta. To take advantage of this special opportunity, call now and get the best space available:
